

Construction Industry Leaders “Tee Off” To Raise Funds For Good Shepherd

SOUTHERN ONTARIO – 2008 marked the eleven-year partnership between The Electrical Construction Association of Hamilton (ECAH) and The Mechanical Contractors Association of Hamilton (MCAH) as they hosted their Annual Charity Golf Tournament & Dinner held at the Copetown Woods Golf Club.

Each year the skilled trades industry association members from Hamilton, Halton, Haldimand, Brant, Norfolk, Wellington and Lincoln team up to tee off for charity. “Thanks to our members, we raised $5,000 for the Good Shepherd Centre’s community and emergency service programs helping vulnerable men, women, troubled youth and children,” explains association presidents Paul Shewfelt, Shewfelt Construction Corporation and Dan Lancia, Holaco Installations Limited.

“We are thrilled to be the charity of choice. The monies raised will and has made a difference to our organization. We sincerely appreciate everything you have done for us. We are thrilled both associations have ‘Faith in us’ to do our job to the best we know how.Thank you and we hope to continue our partnership for years to come.” shares Cathy Wellwood, Good Shepherd Chief Development Officer.
